If an Insured settles any Claim including any anticipated or related Claim without the prior written consent of the Insurer, then this Policy shall not cover that Claim including any anticipated or related Claim. Specifically, any such settlement by the Insured without the prior written consent of the Insurer shall not provide the claimant or the potential claimant any recourse against the Insurer. If the Insured refuses to consent to a settlement or compromise recommended by the Insurer and elects to contest or continue to contest a Claim, the Insurer's liability shall not exceed the amount for which the Insurer could have settled such Claim plus Defense Costs incurred as of the date such settlement was proposed in writing by the Insurer.
6.5	Allocation	The Insurer is under no obligation to pay for Defence Costs which are incurred by the Company, or judgments against or settlements by the Company arising from a Claim made against the Company, nor does it have any duty or obligation to pay for any Loss arising from any legal liability that a Company has to a claimant except in the case of a Securities Claim. If a Claim involves both covered and uncovered matters or persons or entities under this Policy, then the Company and the Insurer shall use reasonable efforts to determine a just and equitable allocation of Loss covered under this Policy, taking into account the legal and financial exposures, and in the event of a settlement, also based on the relative benefit to the parties from settlement of such covered and uncovered matters. In the event that the Insurer and the Company cannot agree within fifteen (15) days as to the amount of Defense Costs to be advanced under the Policy, then the Insurer shall advance Defense Costs which the Insurer believes to be covered under this Policy until a different amount shall be agreed upon or determined pursuant to the provisions of this Policy and applicable law.

With respect to Insuring Clause 1.1 and Insuring Clause 1.2, no knowledge or information possessed by an Insured Person will be imputed to any other Insured Person. With respect to Insuring Clause 1.3, only the statements and knowledge of any past, present, or future chief executive officer (CEO) and/or chief financial officer (CFO) (or equivalent executive or management position) of a Company shall be imputed to the Company; and the knowledge of the same officeholders of the Policyholder shall be imputed to all Companies.
6.1	Subrogation	The Insured shall do everything necessary for the purpose of enforcing any rights, remedies, obtaining relief or indemnity from other parties to which the Insurer is become entitled upon the Insurer paying for any Loss under this Policy, whether before or after indemnification. The Insured shall not do or cause to be done anything that may prejudice the Insurer's right of subrogation. The Insured agree that any recoveries made shall first be applied in making good any sums paid out by the Insurer for a Loss and the costs of recovery. The Insurer will not exercise its right of subrogation against an Insured Person in connection with a Claim unless the Exclusion 4.3 has been established to apply to that Insured Person in respect of that Claim.
6.11	Bankruptcy	The bankruptcy, winding-up, receivership or insolvency of the Company shall not relieve the Insurer of its obligations nor deprive any Insured of their rights under this Policy.

Specific Matter Endorsement-Panel Counsel Endorsement

In the event of a claim brought, maintained, settled, or compromised within the jurisdiction of policy, the Policyholder shall select one of the Panel Counsel law firms to provide them legal defence. Here Panel Counsel means the list of law firms approved by the Insurer. The list provides the Policyholder with a choice of law firms from which a selection of legal counsel shall be made to conduct the defence of any claim made. With the express prior written consent of the Insurer, a Policyholder may select a legal counsel different from Panel Counsel if such selection is required due to an actual conflict of interest or is otherwise reasonably justifiable. The list of Panel Counsel may be amended from time to time by the Insurer. However, if a firm is removed from the list during the policy period, the Policyholder shall select another firm if available from Panel Counsel to conduct the defence of any claim made during the policy period. The Policyholder shall select a Panel Counsel to defend the claim in the jurisdiction in which the claim is brought. In the event a claim is brought in a jurisdiction which is not included on the list, the Policyholder shall select a Panel Counsel in the listed jurisdiction which is the nearest geographic jurisdiction to either where the claim is brought or where the corporate headquarters of the Policyholder is located. In such instance the Policyholder also may, with the express prior written consent of the Insurer, such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, select a non-Panel Counsel in the jurisdiction in which the claim is brought to function as ♦local counsel♦ on the claim to assist the Panel Counsel which will function as ♦lead counsel♦ in conducting the defense of the claim. The current Panel Counsel is listed in ♦Annexure A’ mentioned herewith and forming part of this policy. The engagement shall be strictly between the Policyholder and the firm engaged. Unless otherwise indicated or approved, payment for services provided by such firm(s) shall be Policyholder’s responsibility. It is advised that before the Policyholder engages any of these firms, they are suggested to conduct their own due diligence. It is to be noted that the Insurer does not bear any responsibility with respect to the appointment of the Panel Counsel firm by the Policyholder. Should a claim be made against a Policyholder, notice must still be provided to the Insurer, pursuant to the terms and conditions of the policy. Notice to the Panel Counsel does not satisfy the claim notification requirements of the policy.
